WEWARDS LUNATIO ASYLUM.

ment by the Grand Jury in Re-The Grand Jury of Essex county made a presentment to the Court yesterday in relation to the County Lunatic Asylum in Newark. The charges made by former inmates were to the effect that for punishment mild patients were placed among the most violent lunatics; the women were employed in making fine gar-ments, without the knowledge of the county authorities; narcotics were administered to patients to make them less troublesome; and the keepers were cruel. The Grand Jury says the keepers were cruel. The Grand Jury says there should be a resident physician in the asylum, not only that the patients may at all times have skilful treatment, but that nurses may be deterred from giving sedatives and other medicines, except under the direction of competent authority. The sury recommends the employment of more assistants, and also declares that 'patients who are only partially insane should never be incarcerated with those who are almost devoid of reason." This latter suggestion is a result of the investigation of the case of Miss Nealy, who was only a little insane. She escaped, and being recaptured was put into a straight jacket and locked up, she says, for more than three weeks in the ward for raving maniaes. Her friends testified that they saw her during this time, and that she was not insane.

The Grand Jury suggests that the result of the labor of the inmates should never accrue to the benefit of the persons in charge of the institution, nor of any one other than the patients themselves or their near relatives. The presentment says the sanitary condition of the asylum is good. It does not touch upon any of the specific charges made.

During the investigation it came out that certain Chosen Freeholders wives received some of the finery made by the inmates. One witness testified that she made more than 100 yards of embroidery. The Grand Jury found that though there are $450 inmates, the asylum has only sixteen nurses. Some of the milder patients are employed as nurses, notwithstanding that they are subject to fits of violent insanity. The charge that the nurses quiet the patients with chloral was proven.

Investigating Mr. Hill at Last.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The committee appointed to investigate the charges against Supervising Architect Hill met to-day. Mr. Murch said he desired to take up first the matter of the Dix Island Granite Comfrom the Architect's office. Mr. Thayer, who was present in Mr. Hill, before he was required to soour the files of his office for ten years past, that he be informed what specific charge against him the papers were expected to substantiate. Mr. Murch replied that his object was to show that the cost of public buildings had been increased far beyond any necessity, and that contractors had in some instances been paid ton times over the value of the services rendered. The committee adjourned till to morrow, with the understanding that Mr. Murch be permitted to inspect the files of the Architect's office.

Gay, Butler's Vote Beclared Invalid.

BOSTON, May 24.—The Veto-Investigating Committee reported to the House this morning, and the report is divided on party lines. All the Republicans report is divided on party lines. All the Republicans hold that the facts have been abundantly proved that the Governor was absent from the Commonwealth from Feb. 24 to March 2: that the veto was sent in on Feb. 25, while he was away, and, as the Constitution says he cannot act as Governor when away, and as more than five days have passed since the bill was sent to the Governor, they recommend that it be sent to the Supreme Court for its opinion on the validity of the veto. Two of the Democratic minority say that by the strict rules of evidence the absence has not been proved, and hold that the veto is valid.

TIONS TO GENTLEMEN ON THE INTERESTING TOPIC OF "HOW TO BUY A CRAVAT." LAYING DOWN CERTAIN GENERAL RULES RESPECTING THE MOST BECOMING COLORS IN NECKWEAR FOR MEN OF DIFFERENT COMPLEXIONS, &c. A FRIEND HAS SINCE REMARKED THAT WHILE THE ARTI-CLE CONTAINED SOME EXCELLENT ADVICE TO MEN WITH RED, BLACK, OR BLOND HAIR, HE FOUND NOTHING FOR MEN WITHOUT ANY HAIR. WE APOLOGIZE FOR THE OMISSION, AND RECOM-MEND BALD-HEADED MEN WITH SMOOTH FACES TO CHOOSE CRAVATS TO CONTRAST WITH THE COLOR OF THEIR CLOTHES. IF ANY ONE FEELS INCOMPETENT TO DECIDE THIS MOMENTOUS QUESTION OF CONTRAST WE WILL HELP SELECT THE CLOTHES AND THE CRAVAT, SINCE THERE'S NO BETTER PLACE TO GET BOTH THAN RIGHT

WE MUSTN'T CONFINE OUR REMARKS TO CRA-VATS ATTRACTIVE AS THEY ARE FOR IT'S COM-ING TIME TO PUT OFF HEAVY UNDERWEAR. WE HAVE EVERYTHING A MAN WANTS IN THAT LINE AND IN HOSIERY.
